

On The First Day Of Spring

Jim O'Leary

Jim O'Leary
March 19, 2024

$\text{♩} = 105$
G C D

Piano

When the daff - o - dils app - ear and the rose be-gins to
On this day my mem-ory takes me to an - oth - er time and
Now the cy - cle is re - peat-ed, and my lease a - gain re -

4 G Em C

Pno.

bloom and the air is sweet - ly scent - ed
place To a heart that was much young - er newed. I will face tom - mor - ow's tri - als

7 D G G

Pno.

with a frag-rant new per - fume. And the cherr-ies to the
and a cer-tain spec-ial face. If I on - ly once could show-ing grace and grat - i - tude I will give my thanks to

10 C D G

Pno.

or - chard do their best app - ar - el bring see you I would off - er ev - ery - thing hea - ven, tak - ing what each day may bring.

13 Em C D G

Pno.

wear-ing white in East-er hon - our on the first day of spring.
Now I wish you all the bless-ings that a new day may bring.
And my spir - it shall re - joice as on the first day of spring.

Chorus
17 G C D G

Pno.

Dais-ies dance and bum-ble bees buzz In the gard-en song-birds sing.

21 Em C D G

Pno.

There my spir-it is re - joic-ing on the first day of spring.