

Vancouver Shores

Jim O'Leary

George Sigerson
The Mountains of Pomeroy

♩ = 100 C F Am

Eng - lish Bay and Span - ish Banks and Sec - ond Beach, Riv - er wound - ed in the wars on for - eign shores and they boy my heart was filled with wondr - rous joy, hope - ful

4 C Am F C

Dis - trict and so much more; When my strength is weak then I will sent him back to his land. In a bed o'er - look - ing Fras - er as a chi - ld should be. But I gained the scars that came from

7 F Am C Am C

take a sweet Walk a - round Van - cou - ver shores. Yet what Riv - er's head, he would one day rise and stand. Though he fath - er's wars and be - came a cas - ual ty. Now I've

10 Am Dm Am C Am

seems so clear may be just ven - eer, And a dark - ness may hide/be - hind the left the stage where the batt - le raged, Deep in - side he could not leave the found a way to re - joice each day, Ne - ver look - ing at what came be -

13 F C F Am door, Though the morn - ing light may make the wat - er bright all a - war. And his ang - guish grew - w as his fam - ily knew, though he fore. And I spend my days in giv - ing thanks and praise all a - round Van - cou - ver shores. He was walked Van - cou - ver shores. As round Van - cou - ver shores.

16 C Am 1 - 2 C